Cerise Simone Washington 1980 - 2005

Cerise Simone Washington (B.K.A.) Reese Cup, was born on December 25, 1980 (Christmas Day) in Richmond, CA to the proud parents of Lorraine Butler-Moore and Toromi Washington. Being born on Christmas Day, Cerise was our "Special Gift" from God.

Cerise was a people's person, comical and fun loving. She loved to listen to music and sing. She enjoyed going to the movies and shopping for clothes and shoes. At an early age Cerise was very talented with arts and crafts. She enjoyed making ceramic sculptures.

Cerise had a special gift to work with Autistic children for the Marin Day Rehabilitation Center as a passenger transporter. She was inspired by her Grandmother Butler and Aunt Bea to be a nurse, we were so Godly proud to have another nurse in the family. Cerise took pride in being a Certified Nurse Assistant. She graduated from Solano School of Nursing and received a Certificate for Health Aide. Cerise loved servicing others. She had a heart to take care of people, whether in an Acute Hospital or Convalescent Home. She continued to pursue her education with a goal of becoming a Registered Nurse.

Cerise attended McGlothen Temple COGIC under the Pastoral Leadership of the late Bishop Clarence Davis. While attending McGlothen Temple she was in the Sunshine Band and the Youth Choir. In 1990 she became a member of Family COGIC and a participant of the Youth Choir, under the Leadership of Pastor L.H. McLeod.

Cerise was a "Diva" at heart. She was into her fashion with many hairstyles and her own style of clothing. Cerise had such a radiant smile that will always be remembered.

She leaves to cherish her memories: Mother, Lorraine Butler-Moore and Stepfather DeWayne Moore of Vallejo, CA; Father, Toromi Washington; two loving siblings, Brother Euldrago Johnson of Richmond, CA and Sister, Dominique Moore of Normal, Alabama; two loving and supportive God Parents, Mr. And Mrs. LaMar Grant of Modesto, California; Her Pastor and 1st Lady, H.L. McLeod of Richmond, CA; Grandparents, Birdie Stafford and Billy Moore of Richmond, California and Fred and Cheryl Washington of Hercules, CA; two Nieces and One Nephew, Ajanae Johnson of Sacramento, CA, Ariana and Euldrago Johnson, Jr. of Los Angeles, CA; two God Sisters, Chrishinda Hurdle of Richmond, CA and Destiny Saucer of Fairfield, CA; two God Nieces, Imani Mason of Richmond, CA and Serenity Robinson of Fairfield, CA.
